Introduction

WebMeditech Healthcare Pvt. Ltd. was established in 2012 with a clear vision—to deliver high-quality, reliable, and innovative hospital equipment and surgical instruments to the global medical fraternity. Since our inception, we have consistently worked toward achieving excellence through continuous innovation, strict quality control, and the dedicated efforts of our skilled team.

We are a CDSCO-certified and ISO 13485 certified medical device manufacturer, ensuring that all our products comply with national and international quality and safety standards. Our commitment to quality, precision engineering, and regulatory compliance has earned us the trust of healthcare professionals across hospitals, clinics, and surgical centers.

Under our own manufacturing brand SurgiXpert, we specialize in the design, development, and manufacturing of a comprehensive range of surgical products, including:

- Laparoscopy Instruments
- Endoscopy Instruments & Systems
- Urology Instruments
- General & Specialty Surgical Instruments

All SurgiXpert products are manufactured in-house using advanced technology, high-grade materials, and stringent inspection processes to ensure durability, performance, and patient safety. Our focus is not only on manufacturing superior products but also on supporting surgeons with dependable solutions that enhance surgical outcomes.

At WebMeditech Healthcare Pvt. Ltd., we believe in building long-term partnerships by delivering quality, consistency, and innovation, making us a trusted name in the medical equipment manufacturing industry.
